

ERYCK ABECASSIS is a composer, musician, electric guitar player who undertakes his work in several fields from orchestral to chamber music, electronic, theater, street theater , movies. Digging his style now at the edges of contemporary and electronic "noise music", with a large use of the computer and modular analog systems. For some time, his interest grow for the outside, like streets, public areas, unconventional spaces and also landscapes.